WITH THE YEAR 1947, the firm of S. S. SKIDELSKY & CO., INC. marks its fiftieth anniversary. As we celebrate, we look back over the years upon the first small beginnings, in 1897, and see how each early step was made cautiously and carefully, to lay solidly the foundations of strict honesty and fair dealing which the founder believed in.

This has been a half century filled with great changes. Among them, there has been striking progress in floriculture throughout the country; and it was a source of sincere concern to the founder to play an active part in its development. A few years before he died, he wrote:*

"Business has other compensations than the profits that one counts in money. There is genuine satisfaction in doing part of the constructive work in the growth of an industry."

Throughout these years, too, the firm of S. S. SKIDELSKY & CO., INC. has kept pace with the general expansion, and has attained to an established and honorable place in the trade, of which we are very proud. Writing* not long before his death in 1927, the founder said:

"I believe that I have won the confidence of the trade, and that I have made my friends sure of the honesty of my intention in all my dealings with them. This it is that is my greatest compensation; and this it is that I hope to perpetuate during the remaining years of my life."

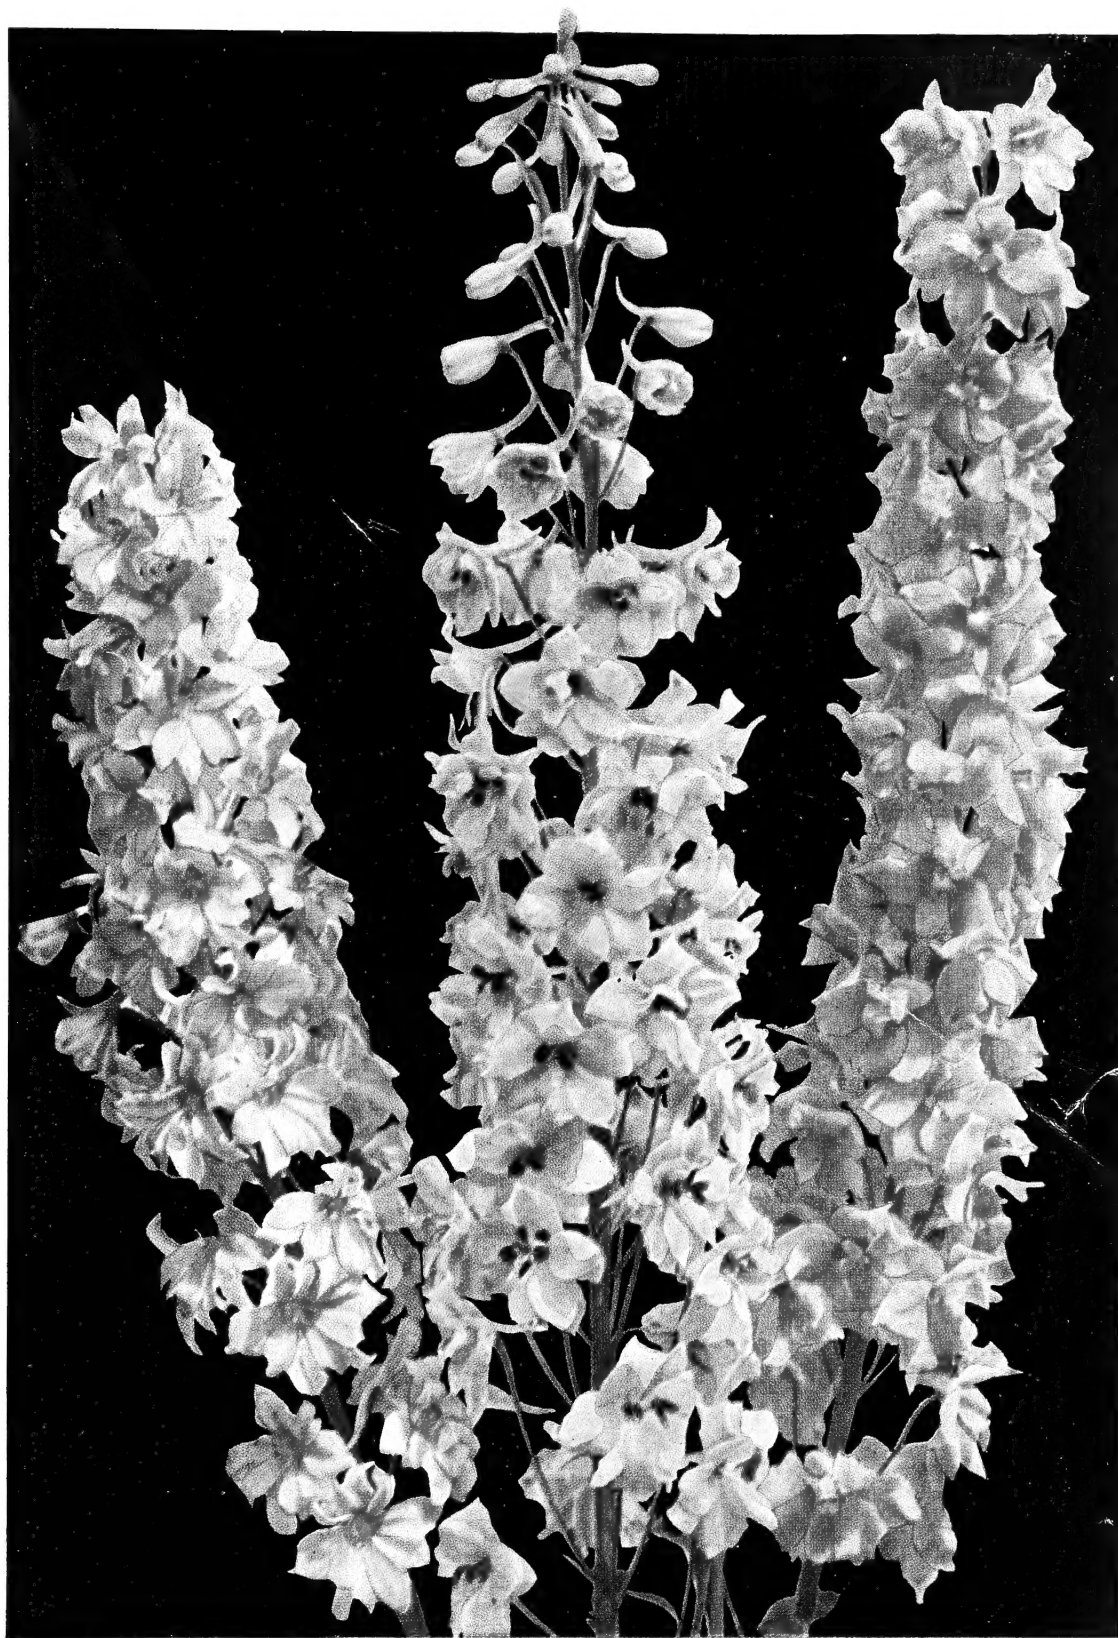

That was the guiding principle which the founder of the firm of S. S. SKIDELSKY & CO., INC. laid down. It is our guiding principle today; and our many friends can rest assured that there will never be any deviation from it.

* TALES OF A TRAVELER. By S. S. Skidelsky.

From TRAVELING OBSERVATIONS by A. E. Borg, Southeastern Bulletin Oct. 1946.

"Many years ago when I first started on the road, a hard-boiled old customer in Michigan objected to me calling on him instead of my old boss, Mr. S. S. Skidelsky, so after several not-so-cordial visits I decided to take the bull by the horns and find out why I couldn't get his business. Well, he told me this, 'Mr. S. S. Skidelsky has called on me for years and I have never known him to sell me an article not worth while and I have every confidence in his judgment and integrity.' Those words ring in my ears every day — honesty, integrity and confidence — three plain words that spell success to every businessman."

A Message To The Trade ★ ★ ★

It is with pardonable pride that we present our FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY catalog. Not a long period of time in the world's history—but it is in the lifetime of a business. We have tried to adhere to the policy laid down by the founder fifty years ago—strict honesty—fair prices—real service—and we shall continue to do so.

There are many obstacles still to be overcome today—shortages of some items—transportation delays, etc. We know you will understand—and make allowances if, at times, things go wrong. When such is the case, we want to be advised—and will do our utmost to correct and adjust.

We hope we may continue to merit the good will of our customers—our friends—in the next fifty years as we have in these past.

Fancy Leaved Caladiums

BRIGHTER COLORS. BIGGER LEAVES. MORE LEAVES.

Caladiums are easily grown but should not be put in a Carnation temperature. Start the bulbs in flats, turning them upside down, since this is a crown-rooting bulb and the roots come out around the top (center) eye. This direct contact with the growing medium produces roots more quickly than the opposite method. Use a mixture of one part leaf-mold, one part good garden loam, and one part peat moss or other coarse neutral material, adding a small amount of coarse charcoal or other rubble for drainage. Press the bulb halfway into the soil and place the flats under a bench. The flats can also be placed on top of the flows, but if this is done they should be shaded. The temperature should be 80 to 85 degrees or higher, as the higher the temperature, the better starting results you will have. Be careful that the flats do not dry out if placed either on the flows or returns. Water sparingly until the bulbs begin to sprout and have roots 4 to 6 inches long. When the sprouts begin to show place the bulbs in 5 or 6 inch pots using good rich leaf-mold. Water copiously when in full growth and use weak liquid manure once weekly if possible.

NEW INTRODUCTIONS

MRS. VIRGINIA IRWIN. (George P. Barr.)

New Variety for 1947-48 Season.

This new sport of Giant Virginia is a rose pink in color similar to Virginia Rose, but with stronger habit of growth and with large, full textured flowers double the size (actual petal count) of the old Virginia, with strong calix and free of any tendency to splitting. Production compares favorably with principal commercial varieties grown today. It has flowered upwards of 30 blooms to a single plant the first season, and although we would not claim that figure as an average, it will serve to prove the "bread and butter" characteristics of this Quality carnation. It has received a number of awards including the N.Y.F.C. Gold Medal.

Price—Per 100: 20.00 Per 1000: 150.00

Restricted for Three Years (to Dec. 1950).

NETTA. (Sim.)

New Variety 1947-48 Season.

Light pink seedling from a cross of two unnamed varieties. The color is the loveliest delicate shade of light pink, much richer and softer than Virginia, and more nearly resembles the color of Light Pink Maytime. The flower is large and full, larger than Hercules Virginia, of greater substance, and has a most attractive form. The petals are not as deeply fringed as Virginia. The calyx rarely splits. The plant is large, bushy, clean, and a vigorous grower. The stem is sturdy and is longer than that of Virginia. The Keeping Quality is Excellent, and the variety ships perfectly.

Price—Per 100: 20.00 Per 1000: 150.00

Restricted for Three Years (to Dec. 1950).

CULTURAL SUGGESTIONS

The cuttings you purchase are ready for potting or flatting. Do not put them back in the propagating sand. Ordinarily they will not require shading, but if they have been several days in transit and have softened up some, or if they are flatted up during warm, bright weather, a newspaper placed over the flat DURING THE HEAT OF THE DAY ONLY will help the plants to become established. Under no circumstances leave paper on the plants during dull weather or at night, and as soon as the roots have become established and the plants stiffen up, apply no further shade at any time.

Benching usually starts immediately after Memorial Day, and should be completed by the first of August.

Some varieties require more space than others, but an average of 7 inches by 7 inches is sufficient.

Carnations are a cool crop. Keep your houses at 48 to 50 degrees at night. On cloudy days, keep your houses down to 55 degrees. On bright, cool days, run your houses as near 60 degrees as possible. Higher temperatures are all right on bright, warm days when plenty of ventilation can be provided.

Carnations like a good circulation of air at all times, but should not be placed in a strong draft.
